

The final classification of abstracts was done by the Academi Advisory Committee(AAC). Please note that the shift of the abstracts to new RCs will not change the the membership of these persons from their original RCs. They continue to be members of their old RCs and will vote in their original RCs. They will merely present their papers in the new RCs in which they have been shifted. No abstract has been shifted to or from Adhoc groups.