President's Message
Dear Colleagues,

Greeting: It is a matter of great pleasure and honour for me for having this opportunity to address you once again through this second issue of the ISS E-Newsletter in my role as President of the Indian Sociological Society. It is with a sense of deep satisfaction and fulfilment that I can say that through out my stewardship of the Indian Sociological Society, myself as well as the members of the managing committee have made every possible effort to address to the growing requirements of the ISS in new and innovative directions. Taking cognizance of the fact that our well established journal the Sociological Bulletin alone cannot fulfill the aspirations of publication of our large membership, which has now grown to more than 3500 life members and more than 1000 student or ordinary members, the initiative to launch the ISS E-Journal was undertaken. While its first issue was brought out in 2012, its next issue is due any time now and we can hopefully look forward to having it by the time of the 59th AISC in Mysore. In the same spirit and taking cognizance of the aspirations of a very large number of Hindi speaking members of the society spread all over the country as well as respecting the feeling and sentiments that any national academic society should bring out its journal in the national language also, as is the practice all over the world, the Managing Committee of the Society unanimously decided to bring out a journal of the Society in Hindi. I do hope that by the time of the 59th AISC, the first issue of the ISS Hindi Journal Bhartiya Samajbhasha Samiksha will also be in your hands. I also do hope and wish that both these journals: the ISS E-Journal and Bhartiya Samajbhasha Samiksha grow from strength to strength and become well established very soon.

Successful launch of the ISS E-Newsletter has been widely appreciated and well taken by the members of the society. The editor, Dr. Rashmi Jan deserves our appreciation. However, the success both of the ISS E-Newsletter as well as that of the ISS E-Journal will depend to a great extent on the creation and availability of the email IDs of the ISS Members. We had been requesting such members of the society who have not yet communicated their email IDs to communicate the same to the office of the society as well as to the editors. I once again take this opportunity to request these members to provide their email IDs at the earliest. I am also looking forward to receiving your comments about the Hindi version of “Global Dialogue” the Newsletter of the International Sociological Association, published 5 times per year in 15 languages by visiting the link: http://isa-global-dialogue.net/

I must also bring to your notice that the ISS not only signed the MOUs with the national associations of sociology of Brazil, Russia, China, South Africa and Poland but has also been making sustained efforts to establish and truly functional relationship with them. Like at the time of the 38th AISC at Udaipur, this time also on the occasion of the 39th AISC, Mysore a symposium session focusing on BRICS countries has been scheduled wherein eminent scholars from all the BRICS countries would be participating. Likewise, in order to increase our visibility at the international level and also to have the benefit of interacting with the international community of sociologists, an International Symposium has also been planned wherein eminent scholars from USA, Japan, Poland, China and UAE are participating. It is not only the ISS that wants to establish relationship and open channels of communication and interaction with the international community of sociologists, but they also wish and aspire for the same with us. The very fact that Prof. Kosch Hasengawy, President of the Local Organizing Committee of the ISA World Congress scheduled to take place in Yokohama, Japan during July 13-19, 2014 with regards and best wishes, Iswar Mod(

Editor's Message
Dear Colleagues,

Seasons’ Greetings, It gives me immense pleasure in bringing to you the second issue of the ISS E-Newsletter. The launch of E-Newsletter has been appreciated by all which has motivated us to strive to make it more meaningful and informative for the members. I take this opportunity of thanking all those members who have provided feedback on the first issue of the newsletter. The success of this newsletter will depend on your participation by way of providing us with news which you all would like to share with sociology fraternity. While posting the first issue of the E-Newsletter, it was observed that some of the email IDs were non-functional or invalid. I request all the members to provide valid email IDs so that we can reach them electronically.

By now all of you must be preparing to go to 39th All India Sociological Conference at Mysore. In this issue we bring to you the programme of the conference as well as the names of the presenter’s in various RCs and Adhoc group. Happy academic deliberations

With regards,
Rashmi Jan
